Paul loves watching his son play video games because it makes him happy

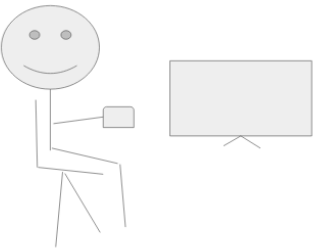

Paul doesn't like when his son receives explicit messages while gaming

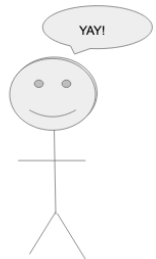

Paul is able to use our app to ban people who are sending these messages

Pauls son now can play video games in peace without having to deal with rude people online

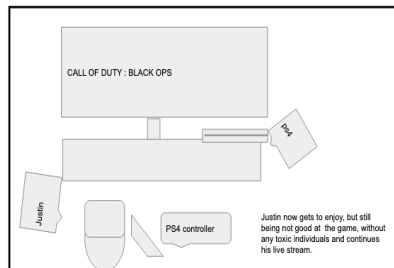

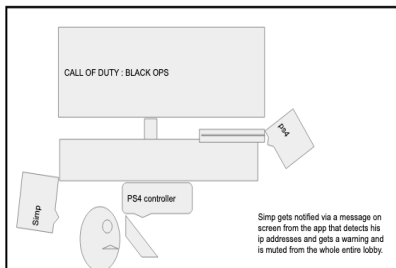

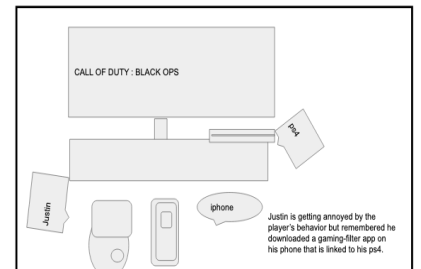

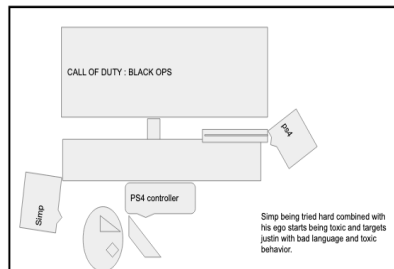

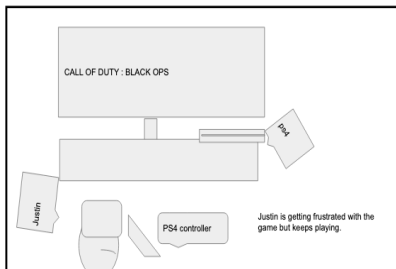

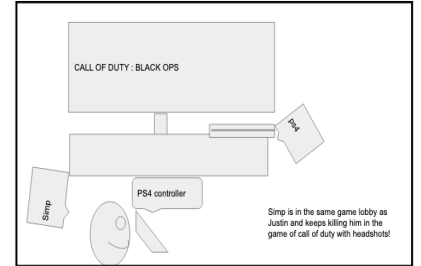

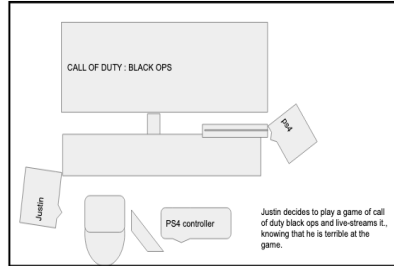

Paul can control what people can and can't say online with his son

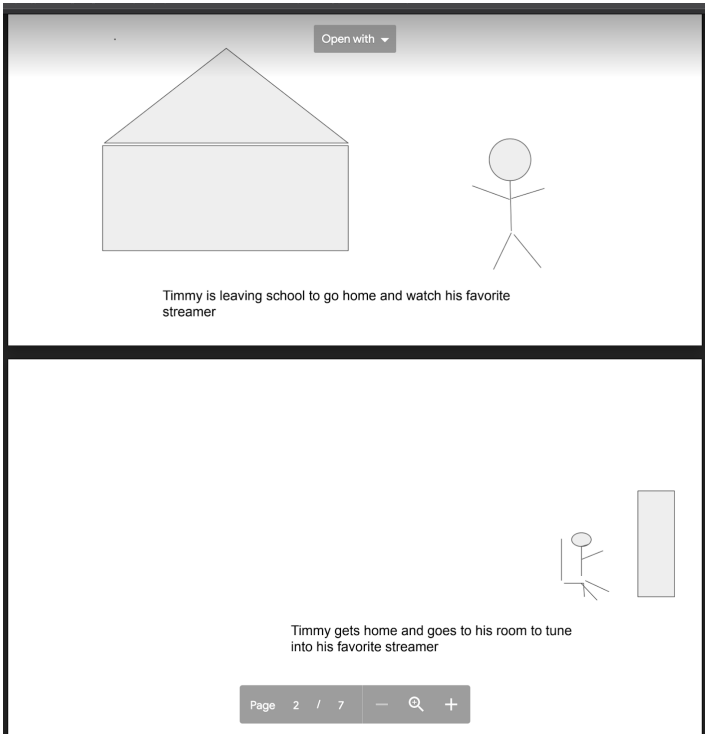

Paul is now able to focus on his work more since he doesn't have to worry about what his son is seeing and hearing from people online

Timmy is upset that another person in the chat is upset because they got a shoutout

Timmy then gets back on the stream and stars donating continuously his favorite streamer so he gets recognizing and spamming the chat

He gets a flag on his app saying to limit the messages and the amount of donations

Timmy lays down in bed after receiving a 24 hour ban to re-evaluate his actions
